

Abstract

PHP- PROJECT

This project is aimed at developing a Student Management System. In which through Admin Panel everything about the students can be maintained especially information about students. Admin will be able to perform operations like insertion, deletion, and update. Students can see their details from the home page of the site by entering their roll number.